

YOUR PAGE OF COMICS

BARNEY GOOGLE

IT WAS BARNEY'S MOVE—OUT!

(By Bill DeBeck)

TOOTS AND CASPER

CURIOSITY CONSUMES CASPER

(By J. E. Murphy)

POLLY AND HER PALS

PA SHOULD CALL UP THE ZOO

(By Cliff Sterrett)

THE DUFFS

SOME BOY!

(By Allman)

FRECKLES

IT WOULDN'T COST HIM ANYTHING, EITHER

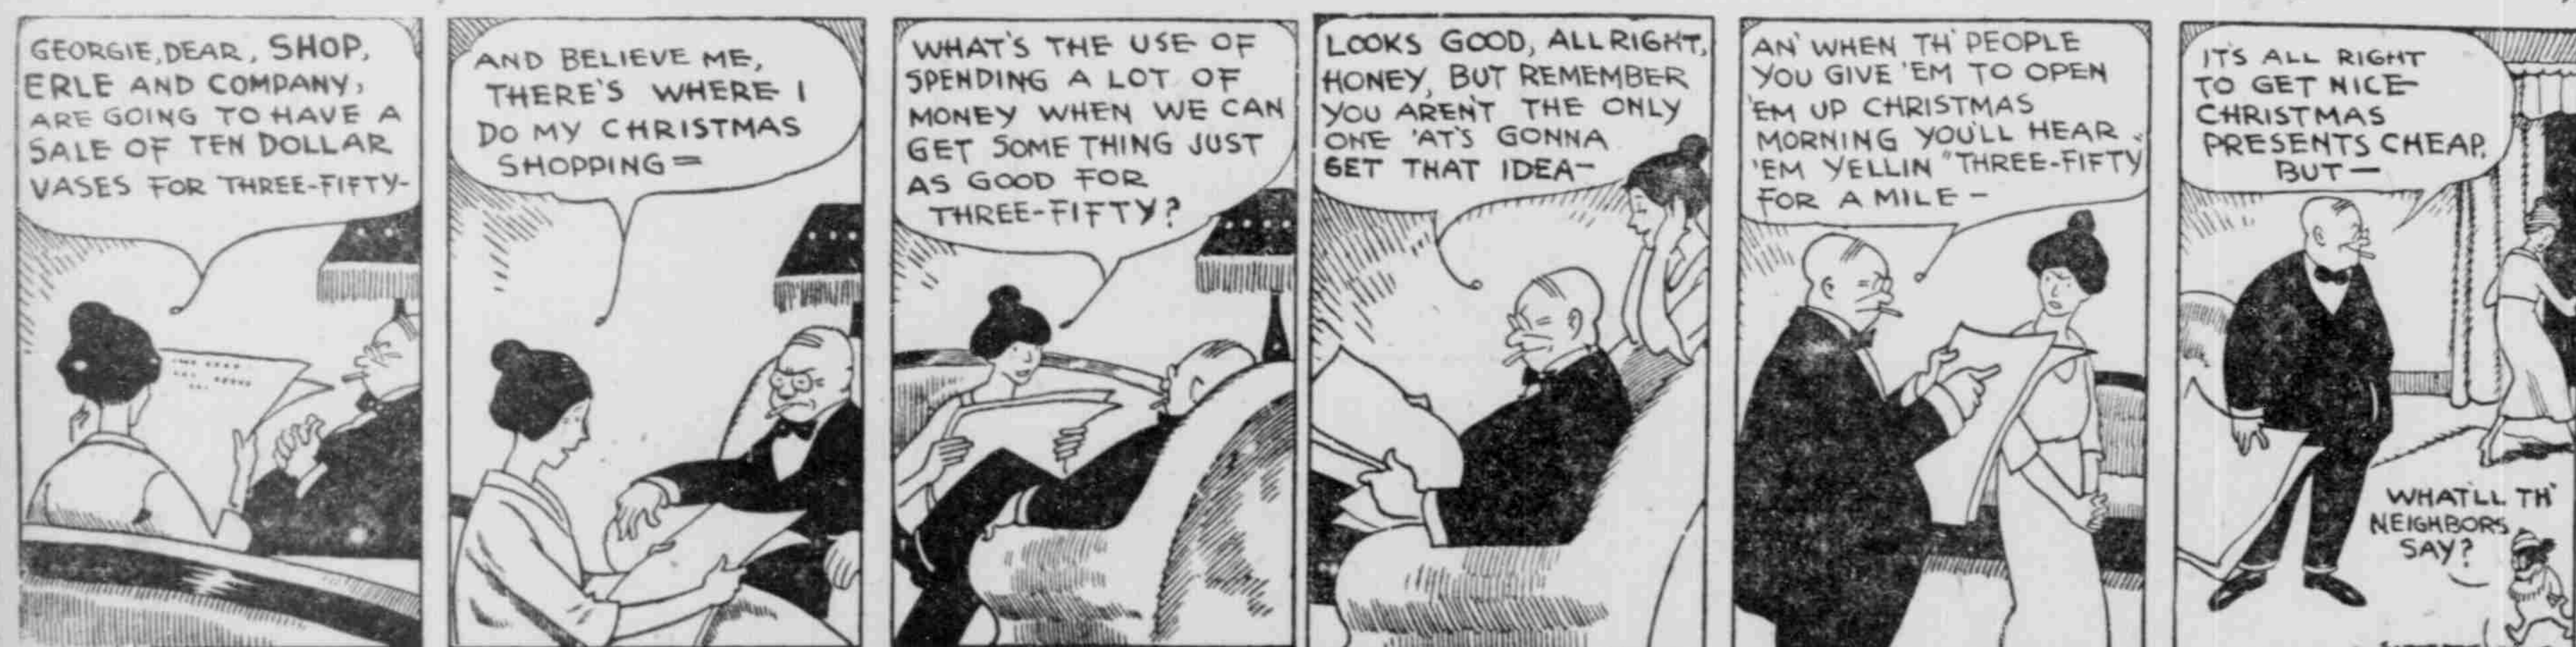

(By Blosser)

ABOUT THIS TIME O'YEAR

THE ECONOMY PROGRAM

(By Satterfield)

THAT REMINDS ME.

By JACK COLLINS.

AMUSEMENTS

(Continued from page fifteen)

visualized by dancing and thus better impressed upon congregations. So he sent abroad for some of the best terpsichorean artists obtainable, and established them at his capital. But in time students of the dance began to adapt it to other purposes, and finally the present Russian Ballet came into being.

"But even before the Russian Ballet found its foundation in the church, dancing in most ancient nations, was a constituent part of religious rites and ceremonies.

"The Greek choruses in olden times consisted of the whole population of the city, who met in the market places to offer up Thanksgiving by singing hymns and performing corresponding dances.

"The Jewish records make abundant mention of dancing. Moses and Miriam danced to their song of triumph when the Israelites passed through the Red Sea into the Promised Land.

"Primitive Christians danced at their religious meetings. The Spartans had a law obliging parents to bring their children to the public place where led by gowned men and women, they were training for the armed dance.

"In ancient times, dancing as an entertainment in private society was preformed by professional dancers only. In fact, it was considered rather disgraceful, among sedate Romans, for any free citizen to so divert themselves in public, except in connection with religion."

Milton Sills and Gloria Swanson in a scene from the Paramount picture, "The Great Moment," which opens a four day engagement at the Blackstone theater today.

25 percent Reduction Sale, Ver-non's

Jarvis and Harrison, now playing at the Orpheum in the comedy skit "Lonesome."

NORTH LIBERTY

Mrs. F. A. Farver has gone to West Bridgewater, Pa., for an extended visit with her parents.

Mrs. Sarah J. Helm who has been quite sick the past week, is much improved.

The pressure tanks of the local water system are undergoing necessary repairs, they having sprung some leaks caused from an excessive pressure.

Charles E. Goodale is at the Washash hospital at Decatur, Ill., where he is undergoing an operation upon his right eye.

Mrs. Mildred Motts is a student at the Thomas business school at South Bend.

Oland Stull underwent an operation for mastoiditis, at Epworth hospital, South Bend, last week; Dr. D. L. DeForest operating. It is reported he is getting along nicely.

J. F. Price and M. L. Clark made a business trip to Alexandria, Ind., Saturday.

The third number of the Lyceum course given under the auspices of the high school seniors, was presented by the "Sterling Male Quartette" last Saturday evening. The entertainment was very appreciative.

The local high school basketball team met defeat at the hands of the Roseland team, last Friday evening by the score of 37 to 14.

F. J. Fletcher spent Sunday in Chicago.

J. A. Renne and family and Mrs. M. V. Renne were Sunday guests at the home of T. K. Frankenberg.

Charles Furry and family spent Sunday as the guest of W. A. Balslev. The infant child of I. B. Gardy which died Saturday, was buried Monday afternoon at the Peoria cemetery.

Supt. T. G. Blackman resumed his duties Monday morning after a two weeks absence on account of sickness.

Mrs. J. F. Price and daughter Mary are quite sick.

A son was born to the wife of E. V. Stephenson, Monday, Dec. 12.

CHRISTMAS SEALS.

It's hard to decide which is more popular between Topsy and Cinderella. Both are brands or superior coal. That Schuyler Rose advises for the thrifty home-owner. You can lay in your winter's supply by ordering now. Call Main 1800 or Mishawaka 409.

TOPSY IS A GREAT FAVORITE

FREE LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

At the church edifice, Main and Madison sts., Thursday evening, Dec. 15th, at 8 o'clock. The public invited.

343-17